The doubt and frustration surrounding current conversations about race and ethnicity provoke questions like, “Why do we keep bringing racism up?” “Isn’t race just a social construct?” and “Isn’t there just one race—the human race?” Pastors Bryan Loritts and Matt Chandler use Paul’s words in Ephesians to address race, racism, and injustice through video. Through discussion and honest dialogues, we will unpack the hard truths about America’s racial past and present and suggest a pathway forward of healing, justice, hope, and for multiethnic unity in the church.

SESSIONS 1-2 TALKING WITH YOUR KIDS ABOUT GOD

RONNIE KENT

Christian parenting is hard work--and it's getting harder. Parents have a deep desire to pass on their faith, but fear that today's increasingly skeptical and hostile world will eventually lead their kids to reject the truth of Christianity. That leaves many parents feeling overwhelmed--uncertain of what they can do to help their children, given the difficulty and extent of the faith challenges they will face.

JAY & ANGELA NEAL, ERIC & SHERI DANN

B221

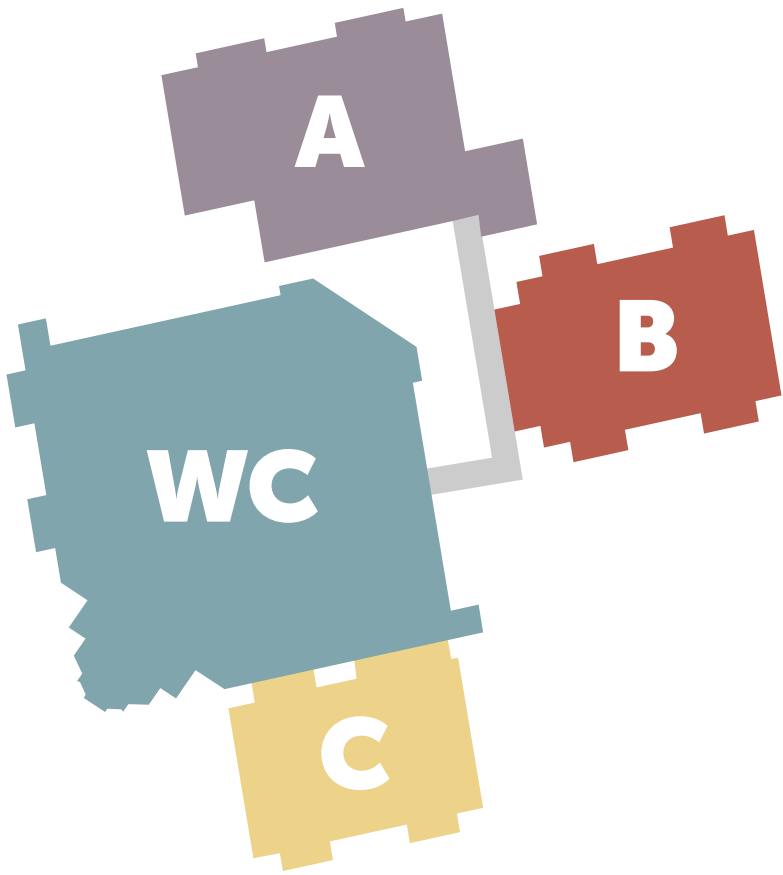

This support group seeks to give comfort, encouragement, and hope to hurting parents on their journey from surviving to thriving. This group is for parents who have children dealing with addictions, legal problems, suicidal thoughts, eating disorders, unhealthy sexual behaviors, mental illness, etc.

SESSION 2 PRAYING FOR YOUR ADULT CHILDREN

STACIE WALLACE

B213

Just because your children are grown up doesn't mean they don't need your prayers. In some ways they need them more than ever. Unveil the power of prayer to protect, to nurture, and to guide. Find comfort, reassurance, and wisdom of God's promises for yourself and your adult child's life and future.
